

WELCOME

Dear Parents and Caregivers,

Wow! What a crazy late start to the year we have had here in 1H. The children have all begun their school year excited and very keen to learn. For those parents that I have not yet met, my name is Kate Hudson I am lucky enough to be your child's teacher this year. On Friday's our class is lucky enough to have Jeanette Mahoney as their teacher.

Thank you for ensuring that your child has started Year One with all of the necessary resources to get them off to a flying start.

Year 1 is such an exciting year when you will see your child develop rapidly as they learn many new concepts and skills in all subject areas. I'm looking forward to building strong relationships with you all to support your child during their time in Year One
